Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

       This building, which until recently housed shops and apartments, underwent several alterations after the original construction date in the 1880s. The three bay gable front house had a two bay, shed roofed c. 1905 addition on the south elevation.

       The facade gable featured twin 2/2 sash windows and a centered circular window surrounded by round arched wood moulding. The gable end was covered with vertical wood boards with a sawtooth lower edge.

       The classical entranceway details included a pediment, fluted pilasters and a six panel door.
